

Jerome Harrison Supports the Veteran Angler Charter Program

12/09/2010

On Nov. 12, Jerome Harrison School met a challenge that North Branford Superintendent Scott Schoonmaker presented to all teachers on the first day of school. As he honored middle school teacher, Kathleen Granfield, for developing The Veteran Angler Charter Program, Schoonmaker challenged the rest of his staff to find a way to help out this worthy cause.

The staff of Jerome Harrison School hosted a Three-Point Shoot Out Contest to help contribute to the program. In a basketball game similar to HORSE, the 34 contestants paid $10 each for an opportunity to make 25 shots in 90 seconds, raising $400 for the Veteran Angler Charter Program.

Pictured with the winners the three-point shootout fundraiser are JHS principal Shawn Parkhurst, North Branford Intermediate School's Mike Polio, and event organizer Kathleen Granfield. Photo courtesy of Kate Fleming

The following winners received trophies provided by the school: Matt Vitkovsky (grades K-2), Brett LeQuire (3-5), Matt Gagliardi (6-8), Kevin Tressell (9-12), and Chris Crotta (adult).

Judy Bannon, of Jerome Harrison School, the event organizer, will present a $400 check to Kathleen Granfield, which will help fund a six-hour fishing trip for six disabled veterans. For info about the cause or the fishing trip, contact Granfield at kgranfield@veterananglercharters.org.

<http://www.theday.com/article/20101209/SPORT20/312099778/0/zip06details>